

Let God

Let God be your calmness,
In the midst of the storm.
Let God guide and protect you,
And with Love, keep you warm.

Let God share in the wonders,
That he has brought you today.
Let God walk beside you,
Every step of the way.

Let God share in your sad times,
Cast your burdens on him.
Let God be there for you,
And know with God you'll win.

Let God rejoice in your happiness,
That he has sent, sparkling your way.
With your loved ones and happy times,
Please don't forget him today.

God will be there for happy times
And for sad times, it's true.
If you let God share your moments,
He will be there for you.
